New Screen Magazine

No. 57. The Reel

JAMES HUNTER is manager of the Denver Municipal Zoo and in his official capacity he introduces you through the fifty-seventh Number of the Screen Magazine to a number of his pets, ranging from parrots to buffalo. Margaret Wade Grinager, fashion expert shows you what can be extracted for my lady in the way of fashions from the styles of King Arthur's court. We have the Vivian, the Elaine, the Flavia, and the Guinevere.

Under the microscope the skeletons of the various minute animals which inhabited the sea and made possible the coral islands like the Barbadoes take on the wonderful appearance of expertly carved geometric designs. The boys of the vocational schools in Kansas City are permitted by the Board of Education to earn real money while they learn. They are shown constructing a building, and after seeing how easy it is we are ready to laugh with the Laughographs.
